| The decision to grant an exemption or credit in regard to the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) rests with the Registrar. Students, who believe that they can satisfy the requirements of any course competency as a result of prior learning, practical experience or both, and wish to be exempted from re-doing this competency, may apply for an exemption. Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) - is the formal recognition of the skills and knowledge a person has regardless of how or where these skills may have been attained, that is, through formal or informal training work experience, (paid and unpaid) voluntary work and life experience. The evidence provided for RPL must address the currency of competencies being assessed. Recognition of Current Competency (RCC) - This term is sometimes used. For general purposes the term is synonymous with RPL. Credit Transfer - is an arrangement to give a standard level of credit or formal recognition to a learner who has previously achieved competence in a training or educational environment. Some Credit Transfer arrangements are also called Advanced Standing or Exemptions. RPL for Entry - is an arrangement where learners are provided access to assessment tools and processes to assist them to meet minimum entry requirements for access to a course or qualification. Applicants will generally be notified in writing of outcome within 10 working days of application. I declare that all supporting documents supplied is true and correct. Also, I am aware that application for RPL/credit transfer fee is not refundable in any case after submitting payment and application form, and the ATQ COLLEGE reserves the right to refuse any application in accordance with the requirement. *Note: Where a request for credit transfer is submitted after the student is granted a confirmation of enrolment ("CoE") by the college, the student's course duration on their CoE needs to be adjusted to reflect any reduction in the period of study. Any changes made to the course duration needs to be reported to Department of Education via PRISMS. A CoE fee will apply. | | | |
