Overseas Student Health Cover

As an International Student, it is a condition of your student visa that you have Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the entire duration of your stay in Australia. OSHC gives you access to out of hospital and in hospital medical services to help you maintain your health. (Fees may be subject to change without notice). Medibank Private is one such provider, the listed prices are GST inclusive and are correct as at 1 December 2017. Rounded up to the nearest Australian dollar.

Additional information can be found at <https://www.medibank.com.au/overseas-health-insurance/oshc/>

*Please note that period of cover needs to be from actual arrival date of Australia before the course commencement date and the End date of cover should be until the end of the visa holders intended full period of study plus one or two months. In the situation where the student is taking on a packaged course, the end date for their OSHC should be at the end of their entire packaged.

Do you need ATQ College to arrange OSHC for you?

2. using staff that are instructed in their responsibilities regarding access and equity principles;
3. providing students with equitable access to all courses irrespective of their gender, culture, linguistic background, race, socio-economic background; disability, age, marital status, pregnancy, sexual orientation or carer's responsibilities; and
4. Providing enrolment procedures that will be free of any form of discrimination, and if an individual does not meet the entry requirements, all attempts will be made to assist them to identify all alternative courses of action.

Application/Enrolment Fee

All applicants to ATQ COLLEGE must pay a non refundable enrolment fee of $300.

Course Fee & Payment options

Course fees (and material fees) includes textbooks/Ebooks, additional resources, printing and the internet at ATQ college. Tuition fees must be paid in the form of a bank draft or a bank cheque or via Electronic Funds Transfers (EFT), and made payable to ATQ College. We will not be responsible for any moneys paid to an agent or a third party. When ATQ College receives a fee and confirms the applicant has signed the Terms & Conditions on this application form or letter of offer, we will forward a Confirmation of Enrolment. The COE is used to lodge for a student visa. ATQ College does not ask students to pay more than 50% of their course fees upfront. Students can make payments according to their instalment plan as written in the Letter of Offer. Students can also choose to pay more than half of their tuition fees before the course commences.

Change of Training Provider

ATQ College will not knowingly enrol a student wishing to transfer from another registered provider's course prior to the student completing six months of his or her principal course of study except where:

1. the original registered provider has ceased to be registered or the course in which the student is enrolled has ceased to be registered;
2. the original registered provider has provided a written letter of release;
3. the original registered provider has had a sanction imposed on its registration by the Australian Government or state or territory government that prevents the student from continuing his or her principal course; or

4. Any government sponsor of the student considers the change to be in the student's best interest and has provided written support for that change.
Deferment, Suspension and Cancellation
ATQ College has policies and procedures in place for Deferment, Suspension and Cancellation of a student's enrolment. This could be due to a student wanting to defer their studies. Or for ATQ College to cancel or suspend a student's course enrolment due to academic misconduct or general misconduct. If a student does not meet their satisfactory attendance and course progress requirements, then this is also a cause for suspension and cancellation. Further policy can be found in our student handbook on our website. www.atqcollege.edu.au
Fees and Refunds
The following information is consistent with the requirements of the ESOS Act, in relation to refunds of course money in the case of student and/or provider default and is detailed in the Student Handbook/Letter of Offer: Please refer to the 'Fee and Refund' policy from ATQ College's website. Working Part time as a Student

On a student visa you cannot work more than 40 hours per fortnight. A fortnight means the period of 14 days starting on a Monday. You must not start work until you have (the primary student visa holder) started your course. You must review your visa conditions carefully based on your circumstances.
Visa Conditions
Students must have a valid visa for study, and it is the responsibility of the student to remain aware of the conditions of their visa to register for an ATQ College course after the student has taken the ATQ College letter of offer/Confirmation of Enrolment to Department of Home Affairs for approval.
Unique Student Identifier (USI)
All students enrolling or re-enrolling in a nationally recognised training course require a Unique Student Identifier(USI). You can get your USI online at no cost to you by going to the website www.usi.gov.au . ATQ COLLEGE requires your USI when you enrol. If you need help with getting you USI, please ask Student Support Services. Qualifications cannot be issued unless you have provided your USI.
Credit Transfer
ATQ College recognises all AQF Qualifications and Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations (RTOs), and grants academic credit for such courses/units of study upon a prospective or existing student's application (supported by the requisite documentary evidence) for such course credit. Please note, credit transfer arrangements may affect the duration of your course, CoE and visa.
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)
Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is the recognition of existing skills and knowledge, attained from previous study at non-vocational institutions or from work and life experiences, against those skills and knowledge identified in the elements of the unit or module they wish to study. Please note, RPL arrangements may affect the duration of your course, CoE and visa.
